TRRG Overview

$4M allocated for grants to educational employers and childcare providers to provide premium pay to support recruitment and retention of:

(A) Educators in the subject areas of mathematics, science, and career and technical education (CTE); and

(B) Childcare and Early Childhood Education providers

TRRG Eligibility

(Childcare and Early Childhood Education Providers)

Applicant Eligibility Requirements

- Applicant must be a Childcare Center or Preschool facility licensed by the Nebraska Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS) The applicant must also:
 - Have experienced challenges hiring or retaining teachers due to the COVID-19 pandemic; and
 - Demonstrate a commitment to provide training and professional development to support retention of employees in Premium Pay Eligible Position(s)

Premium Pay (PP) Eligible Position Requirements

PP-Eligible Positions for Childcare and Early Childhood Education (ECE) Providers must meet the following criteria:

- Provide in-person Childcare or ECE services; and
- Services must be provided at a Childcare Center or Preschool facility appropriately licensed by DHHS.

Premium Pay (PP) Recipient Eligibility Requirements

- Begin working in the PP-Eligible Position no later than September 1, 2023;
- Remain working in the PP-Eligible Position at the same employer through the PP certification date of January 9, 2024; and
- Note: Individuals total pay from 2023 must not be more than $78,165.00 (150% of the state average wage).

TRRG – Premium Pay-Scale

Tier	Individual in Position	Payment
I	On/Before December 31st, 2022	$2,500
II	January 1 st to September 1 st , 2023	$1,250

Note: The TRRG Premium Pay-Scale is the same for all PP-Eligible Positions

TRRG – Application Process

1. Applicants will apply for an TRRG award using the application form provided by NDOL through the application portal located at dol.nebraska.gov. Applications function as requests to reserve a specific amount of grant funds per applicant.
 - The application form requires the applicant to answer and attest to a series of questions relevant to program eligibility and design, including information about each PP eligible position requested, such as the amount of PP requested for each position and if each position is vacant or occupied at the time of application.
 - Requests for technical assistance should be submitted to NDOL.ARPA@nebraska.gov
2. If all funds are not reserved by January 1, 2023, ARPA program guidelines may be amended to expand program eligibility.
3. The application period ends no later than October 2nd, 2023.

TRRG – Application Selection Process and Initial Award Notification

1. An Evaluation Committee, designated by the Commissioner of Labor, will review applications on a rolling basis to verify eligibility requirements of applicants and premium pay positions.
2. Based on the review of the evaluation committee and the availability of allocated funds, the Commissioner will make recommendations for TRRG awards to the Nebraska Worker Training Board (NWTB) giving priority to eligible applications filed earliest.
3. The NWTB will review the Commissioner's recommended TRRG awards for compliance with program guidelines. The NWTB will vote on awards recommended by the Commissioner during its scheduled quarterly meetings, or more frequently if determined necessary.
4. Once approved by the NWTB, Initial Award Notifications will be issued to recipient employers identifying amount of PP reserved, the positions for which PP has been reserved, and the amount of PP reserved for each position. Applications determined ineligible or not approved by the NWTB will receive notification accordingly.

TRRG – Reporting Process

Quarterly Report

Employers must submit a report to NDOL within 15 days of the end of each calendar quarter using a form and method prescribed by the Department. Quarterly reports identify whether the PP eligible position was filled or vacant. For filled positions, employers will provide information about the worker in the position (as specified by NDOL). Recipients who do not submit quarterly reports in a timely fashion may be subject initial award de-obligation or termination.

Certification Report

On or before January 15th, 2024 each recipient employer must submit a PP Certification using a form and manner prescribed by NDOL. The Certification form is utilized to verify the recipient met eligibility requirements as of the PP Certification Date (January 9th, 2024). The form includes reporting information and documentation, as specified by the Department, to determine the total amount of eligible premium pay

TRRG – Final Award Notice and Payment

1. Upon reviewing the Certification Report, NDOL will issue a Final Award Notice that identifies the total amount of funds being awarded and the total premium pay that should be paid to each worker.

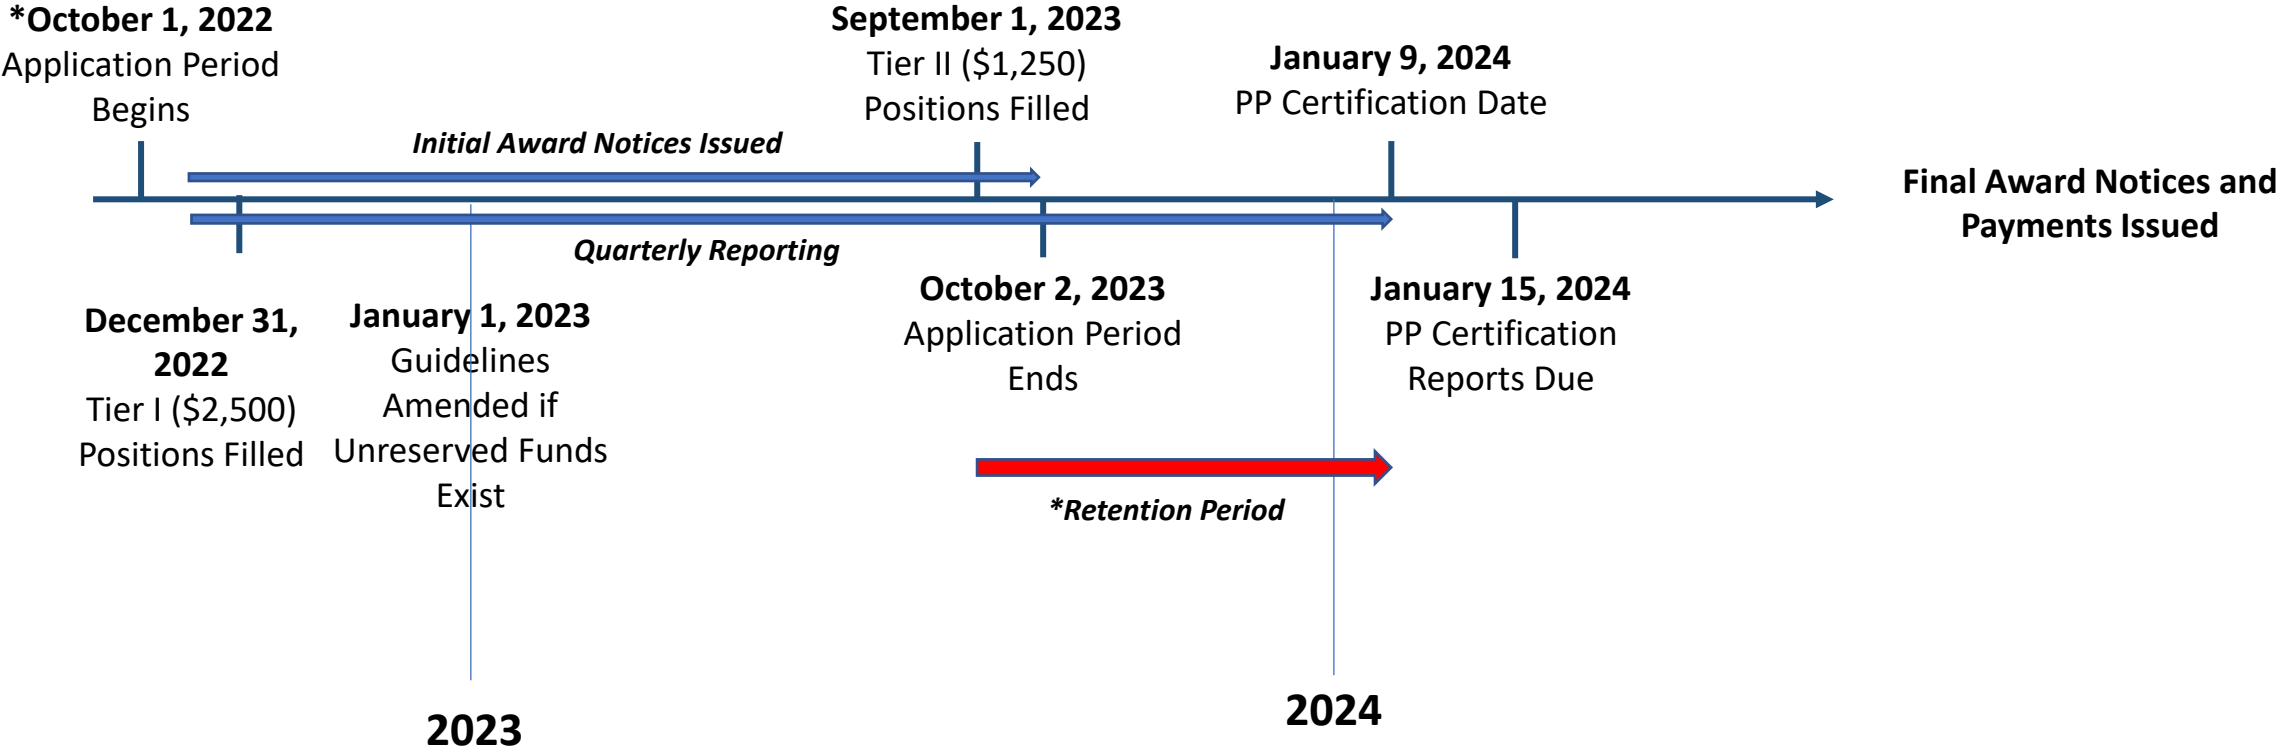

2. Funds are transferred to the recipient employer to fund premium pay for the approved workers.

NOTE: Transfer of funds between the Department and recipient employer will occur only through Electronic Funds Transfer (EFT).

3. Recipient employer pays lump-sum premium payments to each eligible worker as specified in the Final Award Notice.

NOTE: PP wages must be in addition to, and not replace, compensation the worker would have otherwise received. PP is taxable as wage income. Employers are encouraged to treat PP earned by the employee just as they would other wage income and withhold from the additional pay any required taxes.

TRRG Timeline

TRRG – Quality Control

As a condition of award, TRRG recipients must agree to cooperate with any quality control (monitoring, auditing, or oversight) activities determined by NDOL or other lawful entities

Quality control activities may occur from the date of application until December 31, 2026

TRRG – Frequently Asked Questions

Q: What facility licenses are eligible for childcare and early childhood education providers?

A: Providers who operate a facility licensed as a Childcare Center or Preschool by DHHS are eligible.

Q: Are facilities licensed as Family Childcare Home I, Family Childcare Home II, or School Age Only eligible?

A: No. Only facilities licensed as Childcare Centers and Preschools by DHHS are eligible.

Q: Must a PP eligible position be full-time?

A: Yes.

Q: Are management positions considered to provide ‘in-person services’, and eligible for PP?

A: Yes. A management position that supervises or manages employees who provide in-person childcare or ECE services is considered eligible.

Q: Will NDOL create a waitlist so funds that are initially obligated can be redistributed if requirements for payment are not met?

A: Yes. NDOL will continue to accept all applications once all funds allocated to this program have been initially reserved and will create a waiting list, up until the application deadline date. If additional funds become available, awards may be made to employers on this waiting list, starting with those eligible employers who filed their application first.

Q: Can an organization apply and receive funding under multiple ARPA programs, such as TRRG and WDG.

A: Yes. If eligibility criteria is met for the respective program, applicants may apply for and receive funding through multiple ARPA programs.
