Unemployment by the Numbers
Week of October 11 – October 17

New Unemployment Claims
- 2,822 regular claims
- 1,359 Pandemic Unemployment Assistance (PUA) claims

Continued Unemployment Claims*
- 13,584 weeks of regular unemployment

Benefit Payments
- $6.2 million in total payments, including $395,055 in Lost Wages Assistance payments
- 137,923 individuals paid during the pandemic

Benefits paid since March 29:
- Regular Unemployment Insurance: $304,659,145
- Pandemic Unemployment Assistance (gig workers/self-employed): $62,607,169
- Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation ($600/weekly UI benefits to eligible claimants): $695,715,540
- Pandemic Emergency Unemployment Compensation (extends unemployment benefits by up to 13 weeks): $13,848,189
- Lost Wages Assistance Program: ($300/weekly retroactive payments): $51,379,440
- Total: $1,128,985,790

* Data on continued Pandemic Unemployment Assistance (PUA) claims is currently being finalized and will be published here when available.