Dislocated Worker Program

NEBRASKA
DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

Who is a dislocated worker?

A dislocated worker is someone who has been laid off or has received a layoff notice from their employer, and who is unlikely to find employment again in their previous occupation or industry.

A person can become displaced for many reasons. Some of those reasons may include:

- The demand for their skills has been reduced due to automation.
- Their employer is going out of business, moving to a new location, or merging with another business.
- They are the spouse of an active-duty service member who was forced to relocate.

What services are available to dislocated workers?

Whether you are looking to get right back to work or interested in changing career paths, we can help you figure out your next move. Check out the services below.
