Adult Education and Adult Secondary Education

Adult Ed (Western Nebraska Community College)

Website:	https://www.wncc.edu/academics/adult-ed-ged-esl
Points of Contact:	See Service Locations (pg.# 50)

Nebraska Adult Education provides direct and equitable access to Adult Education programs that are focused on English language acquisition, basic skills improvement and high school equivalency credentialing that promote opportunities to transition to postsecondary education, job training opportunities and life-long careers.

Western Nebraska Community College Adult Education provides the following programs across its service area in western Nebraska:

English as a Second Language (ESL) classes help improve a person’s English language skills like speaking, reading, and writing in English. Instruction may also include information on the rights and responsibilities of citizenship and civic participation.

Basic Skills Improvement classes are for adult learners who wish to improve basic skills like math and reading. Students wanting to improve scores on college entrance examinations may be eligible for these classes at no cost.

High School Equivalency preparation classes are for anyone who wants to earn a Nebraska high school credential through the GED® exam. The GED® exam, which measures competency in the four areas of math, science, social studies, and language arts leads passers to their official GED® transcript which is accepted as an equivalent to a high school diploma by colleges, employers, and the military. Nebraska residents 18 years of age and older may also apply for a high school diploma issued by the Nebraska Department of Education upon successfully passing the GED® exam.

Fees:

- Free. All classes offered through Nebraska Adult Education are free. GED Ready® Practice exams and GED® official exams are free for adult learners enrolled in Nebraska Adult Education classes.

Eligibility Requirements:

- Eligible Individuals ages 16 and older

Learning Options: Classes are available in-person, through remote learning (Zoom) and through distance education curriculum.

- A transitioning service member in need of career services

Veterans' Readiness and Employment (VR&E)

Website:	https://www.benefits.va.gov/vocrehab/
Points of Contact:	See Service Locations (pg.# 56)

Veterans Readiness and Employment - also known as Chapter 31 or VR&E- assists veterans with job training, employment accommodations, resume development, and job seeking skills coaching. Other services may be provided to assist Veterans and Servicemembers in starting their own business or independent living services for those who are severely disabled and unable to work in traditional employment.

Services:

- A complete evaluation to determine abilities, skills, and interests for employment
- Professional or vocational counseling and rehabilitation planning for employment services
- Employment services such as job training, resume development, and other work-readiness support
- Help finding and keeping a job, including the use of special employer incentives and job accommodations
- On-the-job training (OJT), apprenticeships, and non-paid work experience
- Post-secondary training at a college, vocational, technical, or business school
- Supportive rehabilitation services including case management, counseling, and medial referrals
- Independent living services

Eligibility Requirements:

Veterans are eligible to apply for VR&E benefits and services if they meet both of the following requirements:

- They did not receive a dishonorable discharge, and
- They have a service-connected disability rating of at least 10% from the Veterans Administration

If the Veteran was discharged from active duty before January 1, 2013, their basic period of eligibility ends 12 years from one of these dates, whichever comes later:

- The date they received notice of their date of separation from active duty, or
- The date they received their first VA service-connected disability rating

The basic period of eligibility may be extended if a VRC finds that they have a serious employment handicap. Having a SEH means that their service-connected disability significantly limits their ability to prepare for, obtain, and maintain suitable employment

If the Veteran was discharged from active duty on or after January 1, 2013, the 12-year basic period of eligibility doesn't apply to them. There's no time limit on their eligibility.

Veterans' Health Administration

Website:	www.nebraska.va.gov
Points of Contact:	See Service Locations (pg.# 56)

VA Nebraska-Western Iowa Health Care System offers a variety of health services to meet the needs of our Nation's Veterans and are delivered through a variety of facilities across the state.

Veteran Administration medical centers and hospitals offer traditional health care services, including medical and surgical specialty services.

Community – based outpatient clinics are meant for routine appointments and health and wellness visits. The clinics are geographically separate from the larger VA medical facilities.

Vet Centers provide a wide range of social and psychological services to veterans and their families. Some of their more specialized offerings include bereavement counseling and substance abuse assessment.

Eligibility Requirements:

Veterans may be eligible for VA health care benefits if they served in the active military, naval, or air service and did not receive a dishonorable discharge.

If the Veteran enlisted after September 7, 1980, or entered active duty after October 16, 1981, they must have served 24 continuous months or the full period for which they were called to active duty, unless any of the descriptions below are true for them.

The minimum duty requirement may not apply if any of these are true. They:

- Were discharged for a disability that was caused - or made worse – by their active-duty service, or
- Were discharged for a hardship or “early out”, or
- Served prior to September 7, 1980

If they are a current or former member of the Reserves or National Guard, they must have been called to active duty by a federal order and completed the full period for which they were called or ordered to active duty. If they had or have active-duty status for training purposes only, they do not qualify for VA health care.

Veteran Service Officers

Website:	Veterans.nebraska.gov/cvso
Points of Contact:	See Service Locations (pg.# 57-61)

The Nebraska Veteran Service Officers help veterans identify and access federal and state benefits including disability compensation, pension, and healthcare available through the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs, as well as the Nebraska Veterans Aid fund, tuition waivers and other state services.

Nebraska Veterans' Aid is available for veterans, spouses, and dependents to help pay for certain items in the event of an unforeseen emergency.

Waiver of Tuition can help dependents of eligible veterans get 100% of tuition charges and related fees waived at certain Nebraska universities.

DD-214 Request can be requested so that veterans have a copy of their discharge papers, which are required to verify their service when applying for many veterans' benefits.

Educational benefits and services are available to veterans and dependents, which includes financial assistance for post-secondary education.

Eligibility Requirements:

Veterans may be eligible for VA health care benefits if they served in the active military, naval, or air service and did not receive a dishonorable discharge.

If the Veteran enlisted after September 7, 1980, or entered active duty after October 16, 1981, they must have served 24 continuous months or the full period for which they were called to active duty, unless any of the descriptions below are true for them.

Website:	https://dol.nebraska.gov/ReemploymentServices
Points of Contact:	See Department of Labor Service Locations (pg.# 62)

The Nebraska Department of Labor has a statewide network of business service representatives who are available to area employers as an invaluable workforce development resource. Business service representatives are residents who understand the local economy, labor market, and community along with possessing a unique set of tools geared towards workforce development. By scheduling a free, confidential business needs consultation, employers can begin the process of getting connected and involved with a variety of workforce development solutions.

Services:

Customizable business solutions, connection to workforce development partners, NEworks registration and site navigation, job order development, candidate referrals, workforce program referrals, job fairs, and hiring events.

Eligibility Requirements:

An employer legally conducting business in the State of Nebraska. Completion of a NEworks recruiting account.

Rapid Response

Website:	https://dol.nebraska.gov/ReemploymentServices
Points of Contact:	See Service Locations (pg.# 62)

The Rapid Response program offered by the Nebraska Department of Labor helps workers to reestablish employment promptly following a layoff. The Division of Reemployment Services team works directly with employers to quickly connect workers to resources such as resume and interview preparation, Unemployment Insurance, and education and training opportunities. The program is flexible to meet the needs of each employer and their team.

Eligibility Requirements:

Any employer, regardless of size, who is planning on laying off or conducting a closure is eligible to receive Rapid Response services.

In some situations, employers may be required to complete a Worker Adjustment and Retraining Notification (WARN) Act, which helps ensure advance notice in cases of qualified plant closings and mass layoffs. The U.S. Department of Labor has compliance assistance material to help workers and employers understand their rights and responsibilities under the provisions of WARN. This can be found on <https://www.dol.gov/agencies/eta/layoffs/warn>.

Points of Contact:	See Service Locations (pg.# 62)

The Work Opportunity Tax Credit (WOTC) is a Federal tax credit available to employers for hiring individuals from certain target groups who have faced significant barriers to employment. WOTC joins other workforce programs that incentivize workplace diversity and facilitate access to good jobs for American workers. WOTC helps targeted workers move from economic dependency into self-sufficiency as they earn a steady income and become contributing taxpayers, while participating employers can reduce their income tax liability.

Eligibility Requirements:

Before applying for a tax credit, complete an online WOTC registration form. The department of Labor will review the information and reach out with further instructions.

Registered Apprenticeship

Website:	dol.nebraska.gov/ReemploymentServices/Training/RegisteredApprenticeship
Points of Contact:	See Service Locations (pg.# 62)

The Registered Apprenticeship system combines supervised on-the-job training with technical classroom instruction in subjects related to the program's chosen occupation. The apprentice can earn a living while gaining skills, and at least one pay raise is awarded throughout the program as skills increase. Apprenticeship has been proven to be a very successful strategy for preparing skilled workers to help Nebraska employers build their workforce, as well as help America compete effectively in the global economy.

Although employers pay for apprenticeship training, the actual cost to the employer is minimal. The program includes both classroom and on-the-job training, so apprentices will be producing for you while they learn.

Eligibility Requirements:

A written agreement is signed between the apprentice and the employer that acknowledges joint commitment to the training process. The agreement is approved in Nebraska by the Office of Apprenticeship.

Website:	Dol.nebraska.gov/ReemploymentServices/EmployerResources/FederalFidelityBondProgram
Points of Contact:	See Service Locations (pg.# 62)

The Federal Fidelity Bonding Program is a hiring incentive tool covering individuals whose backgrounds can pose significant barriers to securing or retaining employment. Employers can meet their hiring requirements and protect their assets through the program – an initiative that provides $5,000 worth of fidelity bond coverage for the first six months of employment or promotion. There is no cost to employers.

Eligibility Requirements:

The employer to which the fidelity bond will be issued must be located in Nebraska, or be operating in Nebraska, and be in good standing with the Nebraska Secretary of State. The employer must provide the individual with a firm job offer or commitment of employment with a set start date and a reasonable expectation of permanence. The employment (W-2 employee paid wages with taxes withheld) must be in a family-sustaining job, whether full-time or part-time. If the employer is a sole proprietor, employer must complete the United States Citizenship Attestation Form. Employer must have an active account in NEworks.

Foreign Labor Certification

Website:	https://dol.nebraska.gov/ReemploymentServices/EmployerResources/ForeignLab or Certification
Points of Contact:	See Service Locations (pg.# 62)

The Foreign Labor Certification (FLC) Program is federally funded through a contract with the US Department of Labor (USDOL). Prior to bringing foreign workers into the US, employers must file a labor certification application with the National Processing Center (NPC) in Chicago (temporary) or Atlanta (for permanent workers).

20 CFR 655.1304\(d\) requires Nebraska Department of Labor to verify the compliance of safety standards for employer-provided housing, rental, and public accommodations as applicable to local and state standards. Therefore, the employer or agent must provide documentation that the housing accommodation(s) are compliant with local, State, or Federal housing standards.

The Nebraska Department of Labor only conducts housing inspections of employer-provided housing that is not open to the public. Inspections are conducted to review compliance to ETA/OSHA, and State of Nebraska safety standards.

Eligibility Requirements:

In Nebraska, all employers must have an active employer recruiting account on NEworks.Nebraska.Gov. If you have questions regarding NEworks account setup, please email: NDOL.NEworksHelp@nebraska.gov

Agricultural Temporary Labor Certification (H-2A Program)

If there are not sufficient U.S. workers who are able, willing, qualified and available for a requested position and employment of the foreign worker will not adversely affect the wages and the working conditions of U.S. workers similarly employed, then the employer may request full-time temporary employment certification for foreign workers in agricultural based jobs, as defined in [20 CFR 655.103 \(c\)], lasting no longer than one year.

Nonagricultural Temporary Labor Certification (H-2B Program)

Employers who meet specific regulatory requirements can hire foreign nonimmigrant workers to fill temporary nonagricultural jobs. Employers will need to post a job order in NEworks.

On-site Consultation Program

Website:	https://dol.nebraska.gov/Safety/OnsiteConsultationProgram/Overview
Points of Contact:	See Service Locations (pg.# 62)

The Nebraska On-Site Safety and Health Consultation Program assists employers in providing their employees with a safe and healthy workplace by helping to identify and correct safety and health hazards in general industry and construction before they become dangerous and expensive problems.

Services

- Safety and Health Program Assessment
- Employer-Employee Training
- Ventilation System Evaluation
- Electrical Systems and Equipment Evaluation
- Review of Machine Guarding
- Noise Measurements
- Air Sampling and Analysis
- Assistance with Personal Protective Equipment
- Comprehensive Written Reports
- Technical Assistance
- Exemption from Routine OSHA Inspections

Upon completion of the visit, program staff will identify hazards in your business and supply written reports of their findings including recommendations on how to reduce or eliminate the hazards. Corrective action on serious and imminent hazards is required as part of the program. The employer and consultant set and agree to timelines for correction of the serious hazards. The employer will be asked to confirm that corrective action has been taken. The Department of Labor will follow up with employers that are seeking an exemption from routine OSHA inspections.

Eligibility Requirements

The program is available to any business that has less than 250 employees on-site and 500 nationwide. They are unable to provide services to municipal, county, state, or federal organizations. Services are provided through the Occupational Safety and Health Administration and administered through the Nebraska Department of Labor On-Site Safety and Health Consultation Program at no cost to the business requesting consultation services.

Nebraska Reemployment Services (NEres)

Website:	Dol.nebraska.gov/ReemploymentServices/JobSeekerResources/Reemployment
Points of Contact:	See Department of Labor Service Locations (pg.# 64-65)

The Reemployment Program helps connect Nebraskans to job opportunities through one-on-one assistance.

The reemployment plan includes:

- Career Interest Assessment: Nebraska Career Connections assessments are used to provide career guidance and direction. The assessment covers career interests, skills confidence, and work values. Assessment results are reviewed with individuals to ensure accuracy and identify areas of knowledge, skills, and abilities that can be leveraged as a productive member of the workforce.
- Individualized Plans: Consult with a Reemployment Coach to create an employment plan to identify goals, objectives and determine the appropriate combination of services to help individuals reach their employment goals and understand career path options.
- Data-Driven Opportunities: Our staff use labor market information in conjunction with assessments and previous work experience to determine options and opportunities that exist in the current job market.

The first step to enroll in the reemployment program is creating an account on the state's employment website, NEworks.nebraska.gov. This account will allow you access to employment tools and resources, such as:

- A resume builder: An interactive template designed to help organize work experience and relevant information to be organized in a cohesive resume.
- Cover letter assistance: A tool to help you create an impactful cover letter through a memorable introduction, relevant work examples and concise conclusion.
- The messaging center: This feature allows you to easily communicate with employers and workforce staff.
- Virtual Online Recruiter: Set up customized job searches and alerts to notify you of new opportunities as they arise.
- Labor market information: Wages and earnings data, occupational projections, business staffing patterns, career planning information, and labor force demographics.

Eligibility Requirements:

Job seekers who receive unemployment benefits are required to enroll in the program to remain eligible for benefits. Individuals who are not claiming unemployment benefits can also enroll in this program as they search for new career opportunities.

SNAP Next Step Employment & Training (E&T)

Website:	https://dhhs.ne.gov/Pages/SNAP-Next-Step.aspx
Points of Contact:	See Service Locations (pg.# 64-65)

The Nebraska Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS) and Nebraska Department of Labor are working together to get under-employed and unemployed clients on the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) into jobs that pay a livable wage. Their purpose is to assist motivated individuals in improving their skills and helping them achieve the goal of self-sufficient employment based on everyone's individual needs.

SNAP Next Step Employment & Training (E&T) includes a partnership with NDOL by co-enrolling participants in the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA) program. By co-enrolling, WIOA provides the participant additional support and services.

Services:

- job search
- preparing for an interview
- updating a resume
- occupational skills training
- work experience or on-the-job training
- Tuition assistance for short-term programs.

In addition, supportive services can be used in some situations to help with items such as:

- assistance with transportation
- clothing for an interview
- education materials

The goal of the program is to help individuals work around or eliminate barriers to help them find and accept employment. Third party partners may be involved in the process depending on the individual.

Eligibility Requirements:

- Participants must be currently receiving SNAP benefits but not enrolled in the Aid to Dependent Children (ADC) and the Employment First program.
- Participants must live in or around one of the services areas. SNAP Next Step E&T is currently expanding, and new areas are being added

Trade Adjustment Assistance

Website:	dol.nebraska.gov/ReemploymentServices/LayoffServices/TradeAdjustmentAssistance
Points of Contact:	See Service Locations (pg.# 64-65)

Trade Adjustment Assistance (TAA) assists individuals who have become unemployed as a result of increased imports from, or shifts in production to, foreign countries. The goal of the Trade Act programs is to help trade-affected workers return to suitable employment as quickly as possible. To facilitate this goal, TAA certified workers may access a menu of services that include training, income support, relocation allowances, job search allowances, and a health coverage tax credit (HCTC). TAA participants that require retraining in order to obtain suitable employment may receive occupational training.

In addition, the ATAA/RTAA portion of the program is a wage subsidy for workers 50 years and older during eligible period. Participation in ATAA/RTAA allows older workers to accept reemployment at a lower wage and receive a wage subsidy. When a petition is certified, these benefits may be available to those workers under the petition.

Individuals may be eligible for Trade Readjustment Assistance (TRA) payments, which are additional weekly dollars up to 130 weeks total and issued after the Unemployment Insurance weekly benefits are exhausted.

To search for current Trade petitions:

https://www.doleta.gov/tradeact/petitioners/taa_search_form.cfm

Eligibility Requirements:

Petitions for TAA must satisfy three criteria as outlined in 20 CFR 618.225.

1. A significant number or proportion of the workers in the workers' firm, must have become totally or partially separated or be threatened with total or partial separation during the 1-year period prior to the petition date.
2. Sales or production, or both, of the workers' firm has decreased during the one-year period prior to the petition date.
3. Imports of the article or service have increased during the one-year period prior to the petition date.
4. Increased imports have contributed importantly to worker separations, or threat of separation, and the decline in sales or production of the workers' firm.
5. The component parts supplied to the firm, identified in the section, represented at least 20% of the supplier's production or sales during the one-year period prior to the petition date; or loss of business with the firm contributed importantly to separation or threat of separation at the worker's firm.
